Filling it in

Casewell

A filled-in example

DATE	SCHEDULED TIME	ACTUAL TIME	NOTES
Fri Mar 6	6:00 pm	6:40 pm	Pickup at school parking lot, 40 minutes late. Text at 6:05 pm said “traffic”.
Wed Mar 11	5:00 pm	Did not happen	Canceled by text at 3:12 pm: “she’s sick”. Make-up offered Sat 10 am, agreed.
Fri Mar 20	6:00 pm	6:00 pm	On time at the library. Child had backpack and inhaler.

Three rules

1. Write it the same day, and log the good visits too.
2. Facts, not feelings. Quote messages word for word.
3. Never rewrite a row. Cross out with one line and add the correction.

The full version: keep the log in Casewell

A paper log can be rewritten at any time. Casewell records when you made each entry and keeps every later edit. Each visit holds its handover details, the child's condition and the screenshots, photos or receipts that back it up. When you need it, Casewell turns the log into a dated PDF for your lawyer.
